Are you building a new house or remodeling your home? Are you looking for experts to guide you in all of the selections and buying decisions? Do you want your home to be refined, elegant and state of the art? If so, you should call Kuche+Cucina, whose projects have been featured in national magazines and even photographed for product packaging.

With their on site stone and tile department, Kuche+Cucina can make a client's dream counters a reality.

Kuche+Cucina and their staff work together and coordinates from the beginning to the end of a project.

Many customers think of Kuche+Cucina as a "top-of-the-line" kitchen center, but when you walk into the 10,000 square foot showroom, to your delight, you will find it to be a complete design center for many areas in your home. Your eyes will feast on over 30 complete rooms. Featured in these rooms are not only kitchens, but also libraries, baths, closets, media/family rooms, and home offices.

The cabinetry at Kuche+Cucina is semi-custom, custom or hand crafted in order to satisfy different lifestyles, as well as the discriminating buyer. You will see their top-of-the-line kitchens by SieMatic, Poliform closets from Italy and LaCornue stoves and kitchens from France. You will also discover their own hand-crafted cabinetry and enjoy dreaming amidst their line of antique reproductions or get a crash course on the latest in kitchen appliances.
